

I am an XM-radio subscriber. I find this service to be vastly superior to standard broadcast radio. Having traffic and weather information available on this medium would be very helpful to me in my daily commute. Please don't allow the NAB to limit the availabilty of this kind of service to XM subscribers. Marc Olsen